My family moved to Salem, NJ from Elmira, NY the summer before I was to start High School. We rented a house across the street from Carole and two doors down from her relatives the Sheppherds. She took me under her wing to meet the teens she knew. We became good friends. She made it so much easier for me to start a new school. Life took us in different directions after we were married. I have great memories of Carole. So sorry for the family's loss.
