

Ruth E Driver

March 29, 2014

Ruth E. Driver, 89, of Mullica Hill, passed away on March 29, 2014. Born in Ferrell, NJ to the late George and Emma (nee Schmidt) Hammel, Ruth was a dedicated wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother who absolutely lived for her family. She was a self-taught musician who shared her talents with the Ewan United Methodist Church where she played piano and organ as a member for over 50 years. Ruth was a die-hard NASCAR fan, her favorite driver being Dale Earnhardt, Jr. But, most importantly, Ruth's sun rose and set with her husband, George E. Driver, Jr., whom she lost in 1998 after 53 years of marriage. George and Ruth were inseparable during their time together whether it was the time they spent on their farm or while they were camping all over the country.

Ruth is survived by her daughters, Marlyn Wright (William) of Monroeville and Joann Bundens (Robert) of Beach City, TX; her son, George E. Driver III of Mullica Hill; 11 grandchildren; and 23 great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her parents, her husband, George E. Driver, Jr. and many siblings.

Services will be held on Saturday, April 5, 2014 at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ 08098 with a visitation between 10 AM and 12 PM followed by the service at 12 PM. Interment will be at Eglington Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family has suggested that donations be made in memory of Ruth Driver to Ewan United Methodist Church, 325 Ewan Rd., Mullica Hill, NJ 08062. <http://www.adamsfuneralhome.org>

“ To family and friends of Ruth.I found much comfort and hope in this scriptural thought when I lost my husband. "Do not be anxious over anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication along with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God, "Philippians 4:6,7
