

Albert Crescenzi

April 2, 2013

A loving husband, father and grandfather, Albert J. Crescenzi, Sr., 92, of Carneys Point passed away on April 2, 2013. Born and raised in Penns Grove, Mr. Crescenzi graduated from Penns Grove High School. He would serve in the U.S. Army during the Second World War and after returning home began working for Clemente's Transit Mix. Not one to shy away from work and wanting a good life for his family, he and his wife, Pierina, bought a motel in North Wildwood. Working twenty-four seven they became very successful in that location and would eventually purchase the Landmark in Wildwood. As the years passed and even with his wife and son Albert working with him, he continued to work as hard as he ever did. Furthermore, he was very proud of his military service and being a life member of the VFW Post 8840 in Penns Grove.

He is survived by his wife Pierina (DiBenedetto), his son Albert Jr. and his fiancé, Helene Viallancourt and his grand-daughter, Natalie Crescenzi. In addition to his parents, his siblings, Filippo, Dante, Arthur, Jimmy, Ernest, Guido and Sophia Crescenzi, predeceased him.
