

Albert F. O'Brien

December 5, 2012

Albert F. O'Brien, 92, currently of Pittsgrove Township, NJ and formerly of Piedmont, West Virginia, passed away on December 5, 2012. The son of the late John and Agnes (Curran) O'Brien, Albert was a graduate of Piedmont High School and would go on to serve his country in the Navy during World War II. He would then further his education at Potomac State College and would graduate from the West Virginia University at Morgantown. Albert would ultimately go on to be president and owner of the United Resins Plant in Pittsgrove Township. He also served on the Board of Directors for the Elmer Hospital.

Albert is survived by his sister, Margaret McCutcheon of Frostburg, MD; his niece, Mary Kay Shipley of LaVale, MD; and two nephews, Chris Hannon (Wendy) of Cumberland, MD and Robert Hannon (Helen) of Westernport, MD. He was predeceased by his parents; his sister, Sister Joan Agnes O'Brien, SSJ; his brothers, the Reverend Father John J. O'Brien and Thomas O'Brien; and his companion, Kathryn Paulus.

A memorial service to celebrate Albert's life will be held at a later date. www.a
