

Alfred W. Roeske

January 16, 2009

Alfred W. Roeske, 81, of Pennsville passed away on January 16, 2009 at the Christiana Medical Center. Mr. Roeske was born in Newport News, Virginia to Henry and Sarah Roeske. He retired from DuPonts after 38 years of service as a Instrument & Electrical Supervisor at the Edgemoor Plant. He served in the U.S. Navy during the Second World War, was a member of Queen of Apostles R.C. Church and had been the President of Saint James High School PTA. Additionally, Mr. Roeske was a Grand Knight Father Cannon Council 2607 in Salem, the Father's Club at Saint James H.S., the men's club at Queen of Apostles and the DuPont Veterans.

He is survived by his wife Margaret (nee: Sullivan), his sons, Alfred Jr. and his wife Cynthia of Pennsville, Joseph and his wife Barbara of Salem, his daughters, Karen DiPalma and her husband Andrew of Clifton Park, NY, Joanne Lantz and her husband Bruce of Middletown, Del., and Mary Louise Beckett and her husband Steven of Swedesboro, sisters, S. Elizabeth Fogg of Salem and Dorothy (Willis) Stephenson of Pennsville as well as 11 grandchildren. His son Michael David Roeske and a brother Harry T. predeceased him.

A Memorial Mass will be offered on Thursday, January 22, 2009 at the Queen of Apostles R.C. Church in Pennsville at 11am. The family has suggested that donations can be made to the Delaware Hospice Center, 100 Patriots Way,

Milford, Del 19963. www.adamsfuneralhome.org