“AUNT ALICE”

Our Aunt Alice - she was the loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother and dearest friend. My parents, Joe and Phyllis, had the great insight to ask her to be my God Mother. I am certain many of you felt she was your God Mother too!

My father loved all of his family in Penns Grove but there was a special place he had in his heart for Aunt Alice. This love and admiration was shared by my brother Dave and me at an early age. We visited my Aunt Alice weekly. I still remember watching the Ed Sullivan Show one Sunday night when the Beatles first appeared. My Aunt Alice and Uncle Ralph laughed so hard when they sang “I Want To Hold Your Hand”. But little would they know that they would hold our hands throughout a lifetime

Every kid should be so lucky to have an “Aunt Alice” in their life. This is truly what family is all about - to be loved unconditionally - and just accepted for who and what we are.

I will miss Aunt Alice - her smile and loving ways - as I am certain you will miss her too But I am comforted knowing she is in heaven now with Uncle Ralph, Aunt Jo, Uncle Moss, my Dad and my Grandmother and the many other family members and friends that she truly loved too

Thank You - Aunt Alice for being a big part of my life

Love Always,
