

Alvin W. Newell

March 13, 2011

Surrounded by his family, Alvin W. Newell, AKA, "King Bull" "Duck" "Poke", age 82, of Pittsgrove/ Deerfield passed away on March 13, 2011. Born in Noxen, PA, Mr. Newell was the son of Emory & Mae Newell. He graduated from Glassboro State College and began his teaching career at Deptford prior to going to Cumberland County Vocational School from which he eventually retired. Al served in the U.S. Navy, aboard a Destroyer, during the Korean War. Since then he has been very active in Veterans Affairs. He was a member of the Frank D. Sayre VFW Post 1259 in Elmer, where he served as the Past Commander and Service Officer. He was the current Adjutant and Chairman of The Voice of Democracy & Patriots Pen Awards. He was also very active with District 14, serving as there current Adjutant and Quartermaster. In addition, he was also a member of the Military Order of the Cootie, Korean War Veterans Association and the Tin Can Sailors, National Association of Destroyer Veterans. Furthermore, he enjoyed working around the house which he built after moving from Millville. Finally, one of the things he and Cathy his daughter laughed at was the fact that he had gone back to college and eventually graduated the same year, 1973, she graduated from High School.

He is survived by his daughter, Cathy Nuebling (Tom Vanzant) of Brigantine, his brother Paul Newell and his wife Joan of Wildwood and Robert Newell of TX, nieces and nephews, Donna, Paula, AnnaMarie, Lisa and Paul, Jr. as well as many other family members and friends that he has touched. He was predeceased by his wife Janet.

Services will be held this Saturday, March 19, 2011 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The viewing will begin at 10am with the service following at 11:30am. Interment will take place at Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Elmer. The family has suggested that donations can be sent to the Frank D. Sayre VFW Post, P.O. Box 352, Elmer, NJ 08318.
