

Amedeo "Emo" Silvestri

September 4, 2015

Amedeo "Emo" Silvestri, 87, of Penns Grove, NJ, passed away on September 4, 2015. Born in the village of Torre dei Nolfi, in the region of Abruzzo, Italy, Amedeo was the son of the late Gennaro & Lucia Silvestri. He served in the U.S. Navy between 1945 and 1947 during the nuclear testing in the Pacific at Bikini Atoll. After a long career as a mechanic with E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, he would eventually retire from DuPont's Repauno Plant. Amedeo belonged to various organizations, such as the Washington Club, the DuPont Veterans, St. James Parish, and the Senior Saints. Some of his favorite activities were woodworking, bowling, fishing, enjoying the outdoors, and taking long walks along the river. In fact, he would often study the high and low tides so he would know how long and how much time he could walk. One of his most-loved pastimes was traveling around the country to visit family, especially spending time with his grandchildren, whom he cherished.

Amedeo is survived by his wife Violet, his children, Donna Krakow and her husband Richard, Carol Roche, her husband Michael and their sons Aaron and Jon-Paul, and Steven Silvestri, his wife Susan, and their daughters Sara and Sophia, as well as nephews Kevin and Jeffrey Clarke and Mark and Matthew Silvestri. Amedeo is predeceased by his parents, his wife Velia, and his brother Achille.

“ Steven, Carol, Donna and families,

We are keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers. Your father was a really great guy, devoted husband, father and Christian whose faith was displayed in everything he did and provides us with the comfort of eternal life with Him in heaven. Remember all the good times at his home during my high school years playing pool, enjoying good food and friendship. I often tell the story of the Dodge Dart with the push button transmission.

*All our love and prayers,
Randy and Cindy Kelley*
