

Angelo J. Matticola

November 24, 2018

Surrounded by his entire family, Angelo J. Matticola, 90, passed away on November 24, 2018. He was born and raised in Jersey City, NJ, and was the son of Albert and Marianna (Panepinto) Matticola.

He was employed by Laborers' Local 172 in 1957 as a Construction Laborer, working for various contractors for several years until he was hired as the Safety, Education & Training Director of the Heavy & General Laborers' Funds of NJ. He later made Vice President of the Local Union. Angelo retired a Proud Member of Laborers' Local 172 in 1984. Even after he retired, he always was interested in how the Union was doing.

He was a member of the Washington Club and Mother of Grace Society. However, what was most important to him was spending time with his family. Angelo looked forward to spending his annual vacations to Florida with his family, but, especially with his Brother-in-Law Joe Pratta. They played cards every night, and, went to the Horse races every day. He loved his home in Boca Raton, Florida for many years, but, then after a while, decided to vacation a little closer to home, Ocean City, NJ where he enjoyed taking care of his beach house, especially the lawn and his rose bushes.

He is survived by his wife of seventy years, Edith (Pratta); children, Mariann and her husband Frank DiAntonio, Donna and her husband Jim Coleman and Patricia and her husband Brian Savarese; grandchildren, Frank, Brian, Michael, Dana, Anthony and Jenna as well as great grandchildren, Anthony, Joseph, Frank Jr., Tessa, Michael, Julia, Emily, Mia, Sophia and Vinny. In addition to his parents, his sister, Vivian Matticola, predeceased him.
