

Anna D'Angelo

February 25, 2021

Anna D'Angelo, age 82, of Penns Grove passed away on February 25, 2021. Born in Isernia, Italy, Anna was the daughter of the late Carmelo and Virginia (DiFlorio) D'Angelo. In her teenage years, Anna moved to the Penns Grove area with her father, mother and sister. She later went back to Italy and in 1961 she married Antonio D'Angelo after he finished his military service. The two permanently came back to Penns Grove to settle down and raise their family. Anna worked her entire life as a seamstress, working for the Bleeker Street Sewing Factory in her earlier years and was still doing alterations for folks until she was no longer able. She was a member of St. James / St. Gabriel the Archangel Parish where she would constantly be ironing the altar linens. A loving wife, mother and grandmother (she really loved her dog Rocky too), Anna was the heart of the family; she truly loved baking and hosting Sunday Dinners. Her positivity absolutely lit up every room she was in, she never had a bad word to say about anyone and she would get upset if everyone was not in perfect harmony.

Anna is survived by her sons Mauro and his wife Darci of Glen Rose, TX and Robert and his wife Kirsten of Carneys Point; her daughter-in-law Mary of Pennsville; her grandchildren Dominic (Jordan), Marisa, Dylan, Tressa (Haley), Anna, Torie (Eddie), Shelby (Aaron) and Mauro; and her great grandchildren Collins, Brantley, Lyla, Everest and Anthony. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband Antonio, her son Tony and her sister Raffaela.
