

Anna B. Peck

June 24, 2015

Anna B. Peck, age 88 of Glassboro, passed away on Wednesday, June 24, 2015. She was born in Chester, PA to the late Samuel and Dominico (nee Baronisky) Bratun. Anna was a graduate of Chester High School, PA. She was a long-term resident of Deptford, moving later to Glassboro where, for many years, she served as an active volunteer for the senior center. Anna truly enjoyed many summers at Lake Garrison.

She is survived by her son Theodore Peck, his wife Cynthia, their children, Gregory Peck and his wife Jessica, Rachael Sharp (Peck) and her husband Jared, her son-in-law Robert Zanghi and his children Christina Zanghi and Mark Zanghi. Along with her parents, Anna was predeceased by her husband James Peck and her daughter Kathleen Zanghi.

Services are private and at the convenience of the family. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

Tribute Wall

“ Anna was my best friend and neighbor.
We spent my days and nights together talking having tea and sewing. She was the grandmother my children loved. Playing Santa Clause at Christmas time for my Grandchildren was so special and she would decorate my Irish Christmas tree every year. My family will miss you much Anna. We all love you and will always be in our prayers.xoxoxo

Tish Rainey - July 10, 2015 at 08:43 PM