“ I've known Ashley since the 3rd grade but we didn't become friends until 7th grade and we became best friends. She could ALWAYS make me laugh no matter how I was feeling and no Matter my mood she was just so bubbly and happy!! And as adults we still were friends and it didn't matter how much time had passed in between us seeing one another, it was like no time had passed and still she still made me laugh and by time I left her my face hurt from her making me laugh!!! I can't believe she is gone, I was just told by my daughter and it crushed my 💜!!!! I missed my chance to visit with her a little while back she stopped by my house but I didn't know she was there so I didn't get to see her in a while now and just the other day I almost called her, for some reason she just popped in my head out of no where and I almost called her but I decided not to, now I wished I had, or it was her coming by to say good bye to me and probably went around to visit all her family and friends before she left the world!!! I don't know but all I do know is that woman is going to be missed tremendously!!!!
