“ Barbara was one of my dear life long friends from Harrisonville. She was such a strong Christian and a positive influence on many people. Most of my friends from Harrisonville are not there anymore, but anyone who knew dear Barbara, will miss her and cherish the memories of her kind heart.

“ Barbara and I went through all of our years in school together, from beginners in Harrisonville grammar school through Woodstown High.

Barbara was always in my life. I remember visiting her when I was a child, staying overnight in her house.

I remember her showing me the rabbits her brother Dallas was raising. Their father had died in a farm accident when Barbara and I were in second grade. My mother was our teacher that year as our school house had burned down and the original teachers had left. Our class went to the viewing.

Barbara's mother was amazing. Three children, so young when her husband died to raise alone. Barbara told me years later how her mother had saved her children's insurance money they received because her father had died, to put all three of her children, Dallas, Barbara, and Joyce, through college.

Barbara had a lot of her mother in her.

It was a shock this morning to open my email and learn that she has passed. The last time I saw her she seemed to be in the best of health.
