

Beatrice Hardwick Smith

April 8, 2011

Beatrice Hardwick Smith, 91, of Glassboro entered into the waiting arms of her Lord and Savior to receive eternal peace and trust on April 8, 2011. Born in Hatchechubbee, Alabama, she was the daughter of Green Hardwick, Sr. and Lilie Pitt Hardwick. She was employed at the Mater Dei Nursing Home in Elmer where she gave compassionate care and love. Mrs. Smith was also a very active and devoted member of the Bethel AME, Zane Street Church in Glassboro.

She leaves to cherish her memory in lover, her sisters, Zetoria White of New York City and Lilie James of North Carolina; grandchildren, Edward C. Tate (Hazel), Dawn M. Nelson, Robert L. Hardwick, Faith M. Parker (Sherman); friend, caregiver and adopted daughter, Rev. Dr. Bernice Willis, adopted granddaughter, Valerie Willis and caregiver and church sister Linda Emory; nineteen great grandchildren, fifteen great-great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends who in their own way miss her for her smile, words of wisdom, caring attitude and yes, for her chastisement. Her husband Macky Smith and a son Eddie B. Hardwick predeceased her.

Services will be held this Saturday, April 16, 2011 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ. The visitation will begin at 9am with the service to follow at 11am. Interment will take place at Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Elmer. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
