“ Dear Pastor Ralph, Maria and Rachel, I am so sorry for your loss. At a time words fall empty, I can only say draw near to the living scriptures of the Bible, and may they be your comfort. One memory I have of Ben is when we visited Victory Assembly of God on an Easter Sunday many years ago, young Ben came up to us after the service and handed us a beautiful palm cross that he had made. He told us that he enjoyed making Palm Crosses.
May God hold you close,

“ Dear Maria, Ralph and Rachel,
I just found out from my daughter, Julie Guy, of this awful tragedy. I remember Ben from when my son, John Anthony, and I went to storytime at the Churchtown Bible Bookstore when the boys were both toddlers and they would play together. I am heartbroken over your loss and want to share my sincere prayers and thoughts for all of you at this time. I can only take solace in believing that he is now with our Heavenly Father. May the Holy Spirit give you comfort, strength and peace.##imported-begin##Roseanne Iannotti##imported-end##
