“ My deepest sympathy is extended to my faithful friend Janet, one of the nicest, most caring and loyal people I have ever met, with whom I had the privilege and honor to spend several decades working with and sharing good times and bad times. I will never forget the Monday after your first date with Ben. When you came to work that Monday, you had the most amazing and radiant glow on your face to the point that I told Barbara that night that Janet would be married within 3 months. And what a fabulous, wonderful couple you were. My memories of you and Ben are filled with amazement of how great a couple you were. The two of you complemented each other in so many ways. It was a privilege given to me to be able to spend time with the two of you and to share many happy moments with you and your family, whom I cherish. I always considered the two of you part of my extended family, and love both of you. I am so happy that Ben and you were integral parts of my life. Ben will sorely be missed and my prayer is that he is as happy in heaven as he was on earth. He truly deserves nothing but the very best.
