

Betty Seltzer Powell

August 13, 2018

Betty Seltzer Powell, age 87, of Woodstown, died August 13, 2018.

She was born in Harrisburg, PA in 1931, daughter of the late Thomas and Edith Seltzer.

Betty was a graduate of Penn State University in Institution Administration and worked in that field before her children's birth. She later took courses in Elementary Education at Glassboro (Rowan) and taught school for many years at the Mary Shoemaker School in Woodstown.

Her greatest enjoyment was spending time with her grandchildren, which she did often.

She was a long time member of Asbury Methodist Church in Woodstown.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, James.

Survivors include sons, Tom and Ken (Mary), granddaughters Kimberly and Kelly (Mike), grandsons Ryan, Matt and Luke, two great-granddaughters, Adelyn and Leah, and by her twin brother Tom (Wilma) Seltzer.

Friends may attend a memorial service at Asbury Methodist Church in Woodstown on September 15 at 11AM. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Asbury United Methodist Church, 149 S. Main St., Woodstown, NJ 08098.
