

Bruce G. Middlebrook Jr.

January 21, 2019

Bruce Gilbert Middlebrook, Jr., 58, of Williamstown passed away on Monday, January 21, 2019. Born in Philadelphia and raised in the Kensington area, Bruce was the son of Bruce Middlebrook, Sr. and Mary Anne Wolf. He was a 1978 graduate of North Catholic High School in Philadelphia. Most recently, Bruce was self employed, managing his own business, Qual-T Landscaping. Bruce enjoyed hunting, fishing, shooting pool, smoking cigars and making deals at the flea market. But his true joys came from the times he was able to spend with his family and his dog.

Bruce is survived by his mother Mary Anne Wolf, his son Bruce (Middlebrook) Dolan and his fiancée Corrine, his granddaughter Callie Heim; his siblings Elmer Wolf, Mary Anne Varesio and Kim Middlebrook; and many nieces and nephews. In addition to his father, he was predeceased by his son Nicholas.

A memorial service to celebrate Bruce's life will be held on Saturday, February 2, 2019 at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098 with a visitation from 1 to 3 PM and the service at 3 PM. Inurnment will follow at Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Elmer.

“ May fond memories of Bruce bring you comfort during this hard time in your life. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family. Bruce was a kind soul who suffer a lot at the end with health issues but I remember when we all went camping and my kids really enjoy scary stories he would tell them .

“ Rest In Peace Uncle Bruce! I will forever remember the the scary bedtime stories about the bears you told us as kids while camping and once we were asleep you'd come and shake our tents while growling like a bear and scare the pants off of us. Although that was a long time ago, that will always be the thought etched into my many memories of you. Give Pop and Nicky a smack for me and take one for yourself

Love forever,

“Pretty Britty”
