“ I will miss Carl. He loved his music. I will always recall him when I hear "Kansas City". He brought great joy to so many. He will live on in each one.

Recently, Carl was pushing me to complete my wish to play guitar and banjo.

Sal, the owner of Elmer Diner, who has been hosting Janet's Jam for a while related to me recently how saddened that he was by the loss of Carl. Sal remarked about how Carl, Janet, and the Jam brought such happiness to the building.

RIP Carl

“ I have many fond memories of Carl, but one of the first is the best. I was playing at the Bayshore Development project. Carl and Janet came down... Carl had his bass and sat in with me. What a night... I knew I had something good, but as time as went on, I found out what a fine man he was. RIP you rascal you !!!
