“ I remember all of your road trips when you and Aunt Rosie would pick up my Mom and Julie and head to Atlantic City! I would get a call from the Front Desk telling me your aunts are here - again!! Rest in peace and God Bless

“ *I remember playing with Michael and Vincent in their playroom when we were kids and Aunt Mel having fun right with us. Also of having cookouts in our backyards with the neighbors back then, the Maileys, and the Fishers. All of our big family gatherings at Nonnie's and Pop's on Walnut Street and at Brigantine...Aunt Mel - we miss you and I am so glad we recently had the Washington Club dinners together. You loved all your nieces and nephews and we love you too... You are in God's presence where all is made new. We will meet at the resurrection. God bless you always.
Love, Rebecca*
