

Carol Ann DiPietro

March 7, 2023

Carol Ann DiPietro, 73, passed away on March 7, 2023 in Wake Forest, North Carolina. Born in Salem County on November 6, 1949 to Howard and Francis (Lupo) Willis. Carol was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. Carol met the love of her life Jim, together they had three beautiful children that she worked hard to raise (after Jim passed in 1985).

Carol had many interests in life, she was a woman with many hobbies such as reading, gardening, cooking, and enjoying quality time with those she cared about. From playing cards with her community friends to vacationing with family in Georgia and Florida. Carol put her family above all, those who knew her had the privilege to listen to her talk about her five grandchildren and how much they meant to her. She treasured the time she got to spend with her brothers and sisters.

Carol is survived by her son James J. DiPietro Jr. (Amy), daughter Christina M. Malario (Michael) and son Michael A. DiPietro (Amity), three grandsons James J. DiPietro III (Amber), Griffin M. DiPietro and Grayson J. Garrett, two granddaughters Jalyn C. DiPietro and Madlynn L. DiPietro. In addition, by marriage, she had two grandsons David O. Cohen (Faith) and Maddox M. Malario and two granddaughters Traci L. Cohen & Ashley V. Malcom (Noah) and a great grandson Hunter R. Cohen. Carol is also survived by siblings Becky Schmidt (Fred), Velma Wyatt (Charlie), Jackie Goff, Kathy Jennings

(John), Walt Willis (Donna), Howard Willis (Jackie) and Terry Lynn Willis.

Carol was preceded in death by her husband James J. DiPietro, mother Frances Willis and father Howard Willis.

Services will be held on Friday, March 17, 2023 at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098. There will be a visitation starting at 10 AM leading to the funeral service being officiated by her son, Michael DiPietro at 11 AM. Interment will follow at St. Joseph's Cemetery in Swedesboro, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Carol's memory to:

“ Carol was my neighbor on Riveria Dr. In Penn beach circa 1960. She and her whole family were like my own. Becky, Carol, Velma (Doll Baby), Jackie (Pee Wee), Kathy, Howard (Buckshot), Walt, and Terry ,who I held in my arms as a new born. So sad to hear of Carol passing. Till we meet again on that bright and shinning morning.
Love always. Jimmy Smith
