

Carol A. Straub

September 10, 2024

Carol A. Straub, 80, of Pittsgrove passed away on September 10, 2024. Born in Camden, Carol was the daughter of John W. and Caroline Henson Perrott. She graduated from Haddonfield High School in 1962 and throughout the years she has worked as a legal secretary at the Archer-Griner firm in Haddonfield, as a secretary at Sun Oil in Philadelphia, and also locally at The Elmer Times and The Pennsville National Bank. However, what was most important to her and took center stage in her life was spending time with and doing for her family, kids, grandkids and friends. Without a doubt, this brought her a tremendous amount of enjoyment and happiness.

She is survived by her husband Kenneth W; her children, Carrie B. Rosenberger (Brian), John W. Straub (Pamela) and Kenneth R. Straub (Susan); grandchildren, Emma, Carlie, Allison, Elizabeth and Olivia as well as two sisters, Barbara Applegate and Arline Williams. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by two siblings, John W. Perrott Jr. and Susan K. Miller.

Services will be held on Saturday, September 28, 2024 at the Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown NJ 08098. The memorial visitation will begin at 10 AM with the service following at 11 AM. Burial is private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers the family has suggested that donations can be made to the Alzheimer's Association, alz.org, in Carol's

“ I've known Carol since the early 80's and worked with her husband Ken at TSI. How she ever put up with Ken, Cliff, and all those beagles I'll never know. Carol was one fine thoughtful considerate lady. I know she will be greatly missed. Prayers out to family and friends for comfort and peace. Bob and Teri

“ Though Carol's time with us at CRN was short, she made a tremendous impact on everyone she met. The love shown between carol and her dedicated husband was truly what every fairytale love should be. We will truly miss her.
