

Carolyn Griffith

December 24, 2014

Carolyn Griffith, 62, of Pittsgrove Township, passed away on December 24, 2014. Born in Bridgeton to Floyd and Gladys (nee Cassaday) Hill, she was a graduate of Vineland High School and worked as an administrative assistant, most recently for QIS in Rosenhayn. Carolyn shared her beautiful voice as she enjoyed singing with the choir at Grace Bible Church, where she attended regularly. She was a loving daughter, sister and mother, but she was an amazingly loving grandmother who will be extremely missed by her grandchildren. And what will be even more missed, as Carolyn was known for her cooking, was her amazing strawberry jelly. Grammy's strawberry jelly could bring joy to the heart on even the worst days.

Carolyn is survived by her parents, Floyd and Gladys Hill of Pittsgrove; her daughters, Renee Bittle (Frank) of Pittsgrove and Robin Garrison (Rocky) of Carneys Point; her sister, Annette Kylar (Joe) of Strasburg, PA; her brothers, Charles Hill (Cheryl) of Monroeville, Kenneth Hill (Eileen) of Pittsgrove, Jerry Hill (Grace) of Carneys Point, Glenn Hill (Terry) of Monroeville and Jim Hill (Roberta) of Apex, North Carolina; her grandchildren, Reese, Katrina, Dayton, Chase and Conner; and several nieces, nephews and cousins. She was predeceased by her husband, James Griffith.

Services will be held on Wednesday, December 31, 2014 at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ 08098 with a visitation from 10 AM - 12 PM followed by the service at 12 PM. Interment will follow at the Friendship

“ Everyone hears horror stories of "the mean old mother in law" but, not me. Mine was the most loving, caring devoted mother, grammy, and mother in law anyone and everyone could only wish for. She devoted her life to making sure everyone around her was happy and taken care of. She may not have preached of the Lord to everyone, but everyone knew she was devoted to Him too. I'm sorry but I feel I have to say something about Carolyn's services... She was disrespected by her own brother. It was, according to him, as if she followed the path of the devil from an early age and only got saved a few weeks ago. Anyone who knew her, knows that wasn't true. She was an angel. She spread The Word in her own discrete way without judging or humiliating anyone who didn't go to church every Sunday. She will probably be disappointed in me for calling out her brother's selfish motives at her service. But as a true Christian she wouldn't judge me or hold a grudge against me for long. I will always remember the good times we had together because I had no bad times with her. She will be in my thoughts everyday and I will miss her. LOVE ALWAYS, LITTLE BITTLE

“ To Carolyn's family,

How very blessed you have been to have had this woman walk beside you for the 62 years that she was given on this earth.

She was a remarkable woman who I am honored to have called a friend. Friend is really not a strong enough word to describe the bond that we shared. She shared a bond with me that no other living person will be able to share with me. She held my hand and my heart through some dark times and we lifted each other up through times that only a mother and grandmother could possibly understand.

GRAMMY, I will continue to love and look after our babies and until the day I take my last breath I will never let them forget the wonderful woman that is watching over them from heaven.

NONA, I will continue to look after our babies and my prayer is that they will honor you, your love and your life by living their lives in a way that you can be proud. No more tears in heaven.

Years ago Reverend Hourani told me this:

Life is like a stained glass window and in a stained glass window there are bright and beautiful colors along with dark and dreary colors. When you look through a piece of yellow everything is bright and shines. When you look through a piece of dark glass it is dreary and doesn't look very pleasant. In order for the picture to be complete, you have to have all of the colors. Carol, my friend, this is one of those dark times. Your loss is a horrible blow to all who love you, but I know that one day you and I will stand arm in arm and look back at the complete picture that God has created for us and we will understand why things happened as they do.

God doesn't make mistakes.

Love you Carol and will see you again.
