

Carolyn Miller

July 22, 2015

Carolyn Miller, 86, of Port Charlotte, Florida passed away on July 22, 2015. However, prior to moving to Port Charlotte, Mrs. Miller had been a long time resident of Elmer. Born in Bridgeton, she was the daughter of Harry & Marie Tymchy. Her husband Donald, Sr., children, Gregory Miller and his wife Nancy and Donald Jr., and his wife Trinia, four grandchildren, Amanda Hancock (Shawn), Christopher Miller, Matthew D. Miller (Patricia) and Jonathan K. Miller (Louise) and four great grandchildren, Jordan, Dylan, Mason and Liam survive her. In addition to her parents, a sister Olga Cameron predeceased her.

Family and maintaining traditions were extremely important to her. This was instilled in her by her parents as she was growing up. Although she had worked for several years at the Elmer Trust, her life revolved around husband, her children and eventually around her grandchildren and great grandchildren. It was very important to her to keep the traditions of the holidays, celebrating birthdays as well as all of the milestones the kids experienced as they grew up. Just as her parents had instilled this in her, she too has passed this on to her children and their children. Carolyn also enjoyed traveling, and fortunately along with her family, she was able to travel throughout the country as well as overseas during her lifetime. Very strong in her faith, Mrs. Miller continued to nurture and strengthen her faith as a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Port Charlotte, Fl.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family. The family has suggested that donations can be made to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, 3401 Civic Center Blvd., Philadelphia, PA 19104 in her memory. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
