

Charles Brittingham

September 7, 2012

Charles Brittingham, 77, of Pittsgrove passed away on September 7, 2012. Born in Philadelphia, Charles was the son of the late Charles & Flossie Brittingham. He was the owner of Tower's Furniture Store in Philadelphia before retiring and had served in the U.S. Army as well. A compassionate and caring person, Charles cared about everyone and everything in his life, family, friends and especially animals. A cat lover, he often care for many at a time and was a member of the Animal Friends Foundation in Vineland. He will be dearly missed by all that knew him.

He is survived by his daughter, Terry Nelson of Elmer, grandchildren, Anna Nelson and Sierra Simpkins, a great grandson, Brentlee and a sister Judi McCormick. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by two brothers, Butch and Tom.

A time to gather and celebrate his life will be held at a later date. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

Tribute Wall

PP

“ Charlie always let me hunt on his brothers property. Great guy, loved his cats and stripped bass fishing. Will be missed, always looked out for me. Prayers go out to the family. Pete Di Pol GIBBSTOWN N J .R.I.P. REDS.

---

PETER DI POL - September 12, 2012 at 09:27 AM