“ My deepest sympathies for your loss. Rosie and Amy you are in my prayers. This has been such a horrible year, loosing Pops, Ernie and now Chomo. I guess God just needed the best up there. I'd like to tell you it gets better with time, but I haven't gotten there yet. Concentrate on all your great memories of Chomo and that he'll be waiting for you and watching over you.

“ Memories of "PJ" as a young boy riding his bike in our CP neighborhood. Always a nice friendly polite kid who grew up to be the same as a man. Happy to have know him all of these years. RIP PJ Chomo. He said I was the only friend who still called him PJ
