

Charles H Quinn Jr.

December 17, 2024

Charles Henry Quinn Jr., 84, of Pittsgrove, NJ, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2024, surrounded by the love of his family. Born and raised in Philadelphia on January 29, 1940, Charles was the son of the late Charles H. Quinn Sr. and Mary (Phillips) Quinn. He lived a full life, marked by love, laughter and adventure, leaving an indelible mark on all who knew him.

Charles had a long and fulfilling career at Duralith in Millville, where he worked alongside his beloved wife, Robin. In retirement, he enjoyed working part-time at Beacon Bike Store alongside his son, David. Yet it was his true passions spending time in the great outdoors, staying active and cherishing moments with family that defined him. An avid runner, cyclist, and golfer, Charles was always up for a new adventure. He had a deep bond with his son, David, through their shared love of biking, creating cherished memories on their many rides together. He famously biked from New Jersey to Vermont and back, and was a frequent presence on the golf course, enjoying rounds with his sons. His zest for life and love of nature were contagious.

Music also played a significant role in Charles' life, particularly his talent as a drummer. A fixture in Philadelphia's vibrant music scene, Charles performed in clubs throughout the city, creating lasting memories for all who had the pleasure of hearing him play. His musical legacy was further enriched through his special bond with his son, Stephen, with whom he shared a passion for drumming.

Charles is survived by his devoted wife, Robin (Metsger) Quinn; sons David (Becky) Quinn and Stephen Quinn; his grandson, Alexander "Xander"; his sister, Mary Futchko; nieces Barbara "Bonnie" Chido and Nicole Smith; and nephew Erik Futchko. He was predeceased by his parents, Charles H. Quinn Sr. and Mary (Phillips) Quinn.

In keeping with Charles' wishes, services will be private, held at the family's convenience.

His family takes comfort in knowing that his love for life, his kindness, and his adventurous spirit will continue to inspire all who knew him.
