

Charles N. Rogan Jr.

June 14, 2025

Charles N. Rogan, Jr. passed away June 14, 2025 at Christiana Hospital following a brief illness. He was born January 2, 1947 to Elizabeth and Charles Rogan, Sr. He graduated from Pennsville Memorial High School in 1965. He entered the United States Army and served from 1966-1968. He went to work for DuPont and then entered the Carpenters Union 542, then later Millwright Local 715.

He is survived by his loving wife of 53 years, Delores E. Rogan (Hiserote). His children, Laura Young (Robert), Diana Wolf (Kevin), and Nicholas Rogan (Katie). Loving "Pop-pop" to Courtney and Logan Young, and Wren and Zoe Rogan. His sister, Marie Fair of Tampa, FL, and nephews Ron and Rob Fair. Brother, John Rogan, of Cape May, NJ and niece Gina Spencer.

His pride and joy was his family. He was the go-to of the the family and the neighborhood. The man could literally fix anything! He loved his family deeply and loved to see them have fun. Whether on the boat, or in the pool, he was never far from a good time. His last act of fun for the family was installing a pool table in the basement, much to the dismay of mom.

Services will be private at the convenience of the the family.

“ So sorry about Charlie's passing. We were in school at same time at PMHS, but not in the same class.
I knew he could repair anything! A special talent which included remaking batteries for tools.
May God grant him eternal rest and peace and may his memory be eternal.

“ Charlie was one of the kindest, most talented people I have ever known. What always stood out to me was the fact that he seemed to make everyone feel like they were “his best friend”. The world will miss Charlie’s kindness and talents and yes he was proud of that pool table!!

“ Charlie was such a kind and humble human being. He always had a smile for everyone. We suffered many years of Catechism in the attic of Queen of Apostle rectory. Prayers for Charlie and his quick ascent to Heaven.

“ I am John Rogan. Charlie was my brother for 78 years. From a truly insufferable brat as a young child, he grew to be a fine man. From detesting him as children, we grew close as adults. Although I was two years older, Charlie came to be the big brother in reality. His greatest achievement was his family. He wanted his home to be a happy home, and he succeeded, with the great help of his angelic wife, Delores. I used to visit their home frequently, and it was always filled with love and laughter. I was in awe of this, and told them both. Also, Charlie could fix anything, from cars to electric wheel chairs, and even handicap vans. I don't know what I will do now. I loved him deeply, and admired him too. Bro, you left us too soon!

“ I met Charlie and Delores in the late 80's. It was an instant connection that has lasted 40 years. Charlie and I had the same sense of humor, maybe it's because we were both born on January 2nd. Living in NC, didn't allow us to see each other often, however we were able to see each other a couple of months ago, and we picked right up where we left off as if time had not passed us by. It was a shock and a real gut punch to hear of his sudden illness and his passing. Charlie will be truly missed and thought of frequently. The memories we have has left an indelible mark in my heart. Delores, I'm praying for you and the kids. May your faith in God give you the strength you need for every minute, day, month's, and years to come. You made marriage seem easy. Love you always, Maggie.
