

Christian Francis Manahan

February 11, 2009

Christian Francis Manahan, 39, formerly of Pennsville and now living in Lower Southampton, PA passed away on February 11, 2009. Born in Woodbury and raised in Pennsville, Christian was the son of Francis and Alice Schumann Manahan.

Christian graduated from Pennsville High School in 1987, received his AA Degree from Salem Community College and also attended Stockton College and the University of Delaware. While in High School, he played the trumpet for the band and he loved being in the outdoors especially going fishing. He was currently working for DBG Collections in PA and during his down time he loved a good book or playing a game on the computer.

He is survived by his father, Francis of Pennsville, his brother Michael and his wife Shirlee of Pennsville, his niece, Gina and a nephew Michael, Jr. as well as many other family members. He was predeceased by his mom and best friend, Alice in 2003.

A Memorial Service to celebrate his life will be held on Saturday, February 21, 2009 at St. George's Episcopal Church , 3 Church Landing Rd, Pennsville at 4pm. There will be a time to visit with the family starting at 3pm. The family has suggested that donations be sent to the Pennsville Visiting Nurse Association, 151 N. Broadway, Pennsville 08070.
