

Christopher L. Donelson

May 10, 2012

Christopher L. Donelson, 43, of Quinton passed away on May 10, 2012. Born in Bridgeton, Christopher was the son of Joseph A. & Carol (Hoffman) Donelson. He graduated from Salem High School in 1987 and would eventually spend ten years working for Anchor Glass. Chris was someone who could do just about anything he put his mind to and he really got a great sense of enjoyment from helping others. Especially when it came to helping them with their computers or some mechanical work. Although he enjoyed just tinkering with stuff, he also loved spending time in the kitchen and cooking. He was an excellent cook and he loved preparing meals for both family and friends. Always thinking of how to get ahead, Chris was planning on going back to school for mechanical engineering. As mentioned, although he found a lot of enjoyment in doing many things, his greatest enjoyment came from his family and friends and the time they spent together.

He is survived by his wife Christina (Seaman); his children, Amanda, Brittany, Christin, Dayna and Christopher, Jr; parents, Joseph and Carol Donelson of Quinton, brothers, Joseph Jr. and his wife Debbie of Indiana, Richard of Quinton and Carroll and his wife Holly of Shiloh, a sister, Tami Ayars and her husband Don of West Virginia as well as many more family members and friends.

Services will be held on Thursday, May 17, 2012 at the Adams Funeral Home,

“ We have only know Chris & Christina for a very short Three and one half years but it feels like much more. From the instant we met them we knew right away we liked them, just a real good friendly Couple who enjoyed all the same things we did. Chris had a special charm about him that made you feel comfortable, with his smart sense of humor and that smirk he made after telling u something funny it was a joy to hang out with him.

He invited us over for a picnic and met all the kids and his Mom and his Dad, Took us in like we were one of there own, what a great bunch of people. When Chris told you he was having a cook out he had a cook out lol enough to feed an army, Porter House tee-bones, Hamburgers, dogs, Corn on the cob and don't forget the crabs.

Spent many nights going out to dinner as well, Chris loved the "All You can Eat Buffets" and he make damn sure he got his Moneys worth to lol. Steak out Rt 40 was one of the few he love to go for the Alaskan snow crab legs.

One of the things that was so special about Chris was his ability to fix things, Cars anything mechanical if it was broken he could fix it and he would go out of his way to help me out when ever I needed a helping hand. Never asked for a dime but of course I wasn't going to let him fix something without returning the favor so I throw him a few bucks. I'll miss him he was a good buddy, we worked side by side together Driving dump trucks up and down 76 into Philly all day long complaining all the way lol talking on the cb radio's and just having a good old time. We would joke and joke for hours. He was a great person to be around.

I just can't believe this has happened, it's hard for me to imagine he's no longer going to be with us, I won't be able to call him, text, ask his opinion, send him a funny email or just to go hang out with him anymore and that makes me sad. He was a good friend and I can safely say he was a best friend, one I could count on when I needed him most. No longer will I see that warm smile on his face, that wild smirk or that give me another beer look. Chris if you can hear me I want you to know that I have never met another close personal friend like you, you are a great husband a loving father, great son, happy brother and great friend to all who knew you. We will meet again in a better place brother but for now I suppose we will have to get along with you in our hearts and memories. Thank You for being a great friend I love ya Chris.
