

Dale G. Lawrence

July 15, 2008

With loved ones by his side, Dale G. Lawrence, 60, of Hammonton peacefully passed away on July 15, 2008 in the comfort of his home. Born in Camden NJ, he is the son of the late Antoine and Mary Lawrence. He was self-employed as a fence installation business owner. He is a decorated soldier from the time he proudly served his country in the 82nd Airborne "All American" Army Division in Vietnam. He was a member of VFW #825 of Mays landing. An avid carpenter who crafted many beautiful pieces, what was most important to him was being counted on by and helping his loved ones. He is survived by his loving wife, Joan Caldwell; son Eugene and wife Kimberly of Allentown; daughter Linnea Celeste and her husband Marco of Pitman; daughter Deborah Masterson and her husband David of Wildwood; brother Gary of the Appalachian Trail; sister Leslie of Franklinville; eight grandchildren; and many more adoring family members and friends.

Viewing Services will be held on Saturday, July 20, 2008 from 9 AM until 11 AM at the Adams Funeral Home at 111 South Main St., Elmer. A Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 11am at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, 115 Broad St., Elmer. Interment will take place at Gloucester County Veterans Cemetery. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the family.

“ Dad,

You are with me even as I write this . . . Thank you to all of our family and friends who showed their love and support. Thank you to Mark Adams and his entire family and staff, their kindness was unfaltering and shall never be forgotten. Thank you to Christine and Mattie . . . You both have so much class, never doubt it. Gene, Linnea and I will always remember your deep, heart-felt, compassion. If either of you are ever in need . . . You know where I am, do not think twice.##imported-begin##Debbie Masterson##imported-end##
