

Danette Zoccola

July 24, 2019

Danette Zoccola, 58, of Philadelphia passed away on July 24, 2019.

Danette was born in Hoboken, NJ to Ezio and Claudette Zoccola. In 1972 the family moved to Forked River, NJ and Danette graduated from Central Regional High School in Bayville, NJ, continued on to Ocean County College and finished her education at Salem State College in Salem, MA. After working as a commercial property manager in Brookline, MA Danette moved to Center City Philadelphia working as a paralegal for several commercial real estate firms until happily settling in at Land Services USA.

Danette loved everything about living in Philadelphia. She looked forward to the change of seasons, gardening in her yard and flower boxes, shopping for the perfect gift and finding new and interesting places to eat. She had close friendships with many in and out of work, and her friendly and thoughtful personality made her a joy to be around. Danette had nephews and nieces that she made sure she spoiled from early on, and she was known for her heart warming laugh.

Danette was predeceased by her father Ezio Zoccola, and is survived by her mother Claudette Zoccola and brothers Marc and Gregg Zoccola.

A Memorial service will be held on Monday morning, July 29, 2019 at the
