

Daniel L. Gagliardi

October 17, 2005

Born in Penns Grove, NJ, son of the late Filippo and Rosina (Carboni) Gagliardi. Dan received an honorable discharge from the 44th Quarter Master Company of the U.S. Army in July of 1943. After serving in World War II, Dan worked for the DuPont Company and retired in 1977 after 39 years of service. In addition to working for DuPont, Dan and his life long friend Mario Evangelista enjoyed working together and took great pride in the fact that they were both Master Craftsmen on masonry.

Dan was a life long member of St. James R.C. Church, member of St. James Senior Saints, and a long time member of the Washington Club.

Dan was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle, son-in-law and friend. His greatest joys included spending time with his family, working in his yard and garden, creating stained glass objects, and playing cards with his family.

In addition to his parents, Daniel was predeceased by his brother Adam Gagliardi, his sisters Prudence Federici and Virginia Mangiocco. He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife of 59 years Aileen K. Gagliardi, three daughters, Florence Ann Jaros and her husband Gary of Newark, DE., Rosalie V.
