

Daniel T. Mansor

August 28, 1961 - November 10, 2024

Daniel T. Mansor, 63, passed away on November 10, 2024. Born in Philadelphia, Daniel was the son of Daniel Mansor and Eileen Czech. Daniel was a graduate of Triton High School and a resident of Bellmawr, New Jersey.

Throughout his life, Daniel held many titles such as son, husband, educator and coach. Daniel carried each title he achieved with immense pride. Though Daniel was the son of Daniel and Eileen, he was also a son of God. As a born again Christian he lived his life with the faith of God first. With this reformed faith, God gave Daniel the strength to help and care for those around him. Part of that faith is what led Daniel to Jill and granted him his title of husband. He cherished every moment they had together.

The Lord's strength didn't stop there, it helped Daniel leave his mark on the world as both an educator and a coach. He taught the young minds of those within the West Deptford High School system along with those who attended his course at Wilmington University. His work as a wrestling coach stretched across multiple high schools such as Pennsville, West Deptford and Glassboro.

When Daniel wasn't making an impact on the young minds, he was off enjoying the simple pleasures in life. Daniel enjoyed traveling all over, with his most favorite destination spots being any national park. He had a special knack for photography which he would put to use in capturing the beauty of the places he would go. Arguably one of Daniel's most favorite ways to spend his time was with Mack and Molly, his two Great Pyrenees dogs. He enjoyed every moment he had playing with his two pups.

Daniel is survived by his mother Eileen; his stepfather Joseph Czech; his sister Jennifer Czech; his stepmother Mary Mansor along with his nieces and nephews Joseph, Nichole, Mackenzie and Jonathon.

Daniel was predeceased by his loving wife Jill Mansor; his father Daniel Mansor and his brothers Thomas Mansor and Joseph "Joey" Czech.

Services will be held at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, Nj 08098 on Monday, November 18, 2024. The viewing will begin at 10 Am with the service following at 12 PM. “ I'd like to share my experience with Mr. Mansor. Our talks before class after I tore my ACL helped me a lot just to get my mind off of the whole situation and missing a majority of my senior year of football. I would leave class early to beat the bell rush between classes. I would talk with Mr. Mansor almost everyday of senior year just to talk about sports, places he traveled, politics, our lives. Something as small as that helped me a lot with the depression I had at the time which I didn't tell many people about. I'm not sure if he knew it helped me out, our small conversations before class, but it did. I know he was going through a lot too. He had just gotten cancer and began his treatments so I hope that our talks helped him too. I think they did. Now I know you are with Jill and happy. I hope you guys are getting to travel together again. Rest in peace Dan Mansor you will be missed.

“ Mr. Mansor was a teacher of mine during my freshman year of high school. I will always remember the cheerful attitude he brought into the classroom and the joy he spread throughout his students. i will never forget the ways he would always make us laugh, even on the toughest days. The way he would make all lessons super interesting and have us act out certain parts and make posters and do group worked. It was always so fun when he'd tell us stories of all the places he had been to and how it was there. Mr. Mansor was and always will be such an amazing person and teacher. He lit the lives up of so many. he touched the hearts of everyone he met and made everyone feel seen and heard.

“ I was honored to have Dan and his wife Jill as instructors for me at Wilmington University. They both were dedicated Christians and excellent teachers. One student this summer wrote that "Dan Mansor is a warrior". Not only was Dan an instructor who taught courses for me but he was a friend as well. He will be missed. Mr. Lynn W. Moore, Chair of History and Humanities, Wilmington University

“ Danny we will forever miss you but not forget you. Only wish we could have spent more time with you but with us being in Florida and you in New Jersey it wasn't easy. Those of us who are still here on Earth know that you are in a better place. You don't have to worry about anything anymore. All our love, Uncle Rich and Aunt Penny.

“ Lil Dan was a childhood friend. Our families were close and we made many memories at the Mansor household. Swimming in the pool, summers at the ocean, Tommy's little league games and enjoying the holidays together. Best times were sneaking away from the adults up to Danny's room where we would talk and listen to his library of 8 tracks. He had a beautiful soul.

“ I will always remember Dan as someone who stood by his values and was very dedicated to any endeavor he pursued; teaching, coaching, mentoring, friendship, a dedicated husband. He was an honorable man who along with his wife Jill started Raise Your Dreams Farm to help children who would otherwise not have the experience of riding horses. I will dearly miss my friend.

Danny was a wonderful childhood friend that I was lucky to get to spend time with when our families would gather for Holidays and Vacations. Loved just hanging out listening to music. Will miss you Little Dan and my prayers are to your family and friends that were lucky enough to get to know you. Love Always Deb Tucker (DeGarmo)
