“ I attended Pinebrook Assembly of God in Naugatuck when Darrin's parents pastored. My life was a mess and I lost more than one child during their time pastoring in Connecticut. I was never judged and always loved and I wish to send my love and prayers to all of the family now. I serve the Lord today because of the love I have received in the past. God be with you all!

“ I am so sorry for this loss. The memories I have are when we were kids (cousins) and the only families living in the US (Michigan). We had a lot of fun with this! He was a great kid - and I know he grew up to be a remarkable man. My thoughts and prayers go out to each of you at this time.

Much Love,

Valerie, with Vanessa, Aunt Dorothy and our angel in heaven: Vicki.
