

David W. Hunter

July 23, 2025

David Weston Hunter, age 59, of Pittsgrove, NJ passed away on July 23, 2025. Born in Camden to Clifford Weston Hunter and Anna (Dolly) Theresa (nee Stecher) Hunter, David grew up in Mullica Hill and was a graduate of Baptist High School in Haddon Heights. He went on to further his education by going to the Philadelphia School of Printing and Advertising where he earned his Associate's Degree. In 1992, he married Dawn Marie Urban and the two moved to Malaga. In 2020, they ultimately moved to Pittsgrove.

Over the years, David worked as a Pre-Press Printer at CCL Label in Lumberton. He also worked part time in the archery department at Bob's Little Sport Shop in Glassboro up until his first liver transplant. David was an avid outdoorsman; he loved hunting and fishing. He also carved and painted duck decoys. He was a "Jack of all trades" and mastered them all; he could fix anything.

David is survived by his parents Clifford and Anna (Dolly) Hunter; his loving wife of almost 33 years, Dawn Hunter; his three daughters Felicia Hitchner (Scott Jr.), Lauren Guy (Zach) and Megan Ireland (Mike); his granddaughter Freya Hitchner; his siblings (Dan and Gail) and his two beloved dogs, Molly and Max.

“ I love you dad. ❤️

*If you're wondering when I find you
I'll tell you when I'll be
I might have to tell you
and when the day finally comes
I'll be the man and in the end*
