“ Debbie, to say I wish I could be there today, is true but what I truly wish with all my heart is that today wasn't happening and Friday morning never existed. You taught this insecure, brooding teen back in high school how to laugh so hard I peed myself and how to make an entrance into a room dancing without a care in the world with no regard to who was watching or what they thought. When you threw Elaine, Diane x 2 and Flossie in the mix, it was like using a stick of dynamite to eradicate a tiny ant hill, just so explosive, so much fun; those were some of the best times in my life and you made that happen. So many memories, so many lost years. I thank God we got to spend time together at the Reunion, brief but now so very cherished. I know you're busy reconnecting with your loved ones who have passed before you and guiding your beautiful family here on earth through this tragic time but when you get a minute, look down on us and hit us with your laughing stick, especially Elaine. She needs to know you'll always be with her. Godspeed my Dear Friend.

“ To the Thomas family. I am so sorry for the loss of your wife and mother. The fond memories I have of Debbie are sitting at the basket ball games next to her and Judy as we cheered on our sons. She loved her family and was very proud of you Danny and she definitely enjoyed the cruises. I will continue to pray for the comfort you all need as you grieve the loss of your mother and the loss of your wife Shaun.
With deepest sympathy.

“ I am deeply saddened by the news of Debbie's passing into eternal rest for the reason we shall all miss her smile and her considerate conversations about how we all are doing. Well we know how she is "wonderful happy healthy and looking down on all of us as another beautiful angel". Till we meet again I shall treasure the memories Fourth of July parties , dancing at Alfie's til the sun came up and parking our camp on Wildwood beach watching our kids play while we all played too. Miss the days but treasure the memories. Love to Sean Danny and Justin from Kim, Ruth and Ernie.

“ We send you thoughts of peace and courage during this tragic time. It’s not easy having to deal with the death of a loved one, but the Bible can help soothe us. Jesus Christ said: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus]’ voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) Yes, Jesus Christ promised that all those in God’s memory will be resurrected. All the dead who are in God’s memory will be released from death, Sheol, mankind’s common grave. (Psalm 16:10; Acts 2:31)The Bible teaches that Jehovah God is very eager to raise the dead and He remembers our dead loved ones. “You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”—Job 14:13-15. I hope this will bring your family comfort like it has mine.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Debbie's passing. My sincere condolences to her family. Although I have not seen or spoken to Debbie since high she was a very good friend. We had such fun. The laughing box and Silly String during the graduation ceremony, dancing on stage during the pep rallies to name a few. This is the Debbie I remember and loved. She was a terrific person.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss. I know you will miss your loved one very much, but as you cherish fond memories. May you find comfort knowing that Our Almighty God is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. And very soon He will end all sickness, death, pain and sorrow. (Rev. 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ My condolences, and my sympathy to the Thomas family. Although I am not acquainted with the family personally, but I do not feel like to lose someone that I love. What can help the family is to ask God for the comfort that you need to help you to endure. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) One day soon God is going to put an end to sickness, and death forever. (Isaiah 33:24 ; Revelation 21:3,4) Also those who have died will see life again. (John 5:28,29 ; 11:25,26) If you will like to know more go to jw.org.com official website.

“ I offer my deep condolences for your loss. Hearing what happened was devastating. My heart goes out to your family. May God comfort you at this most difficult time with his loving promise to reunite you together again in the future Paradise when he will do away with sickness, pain and death. (Revelation 21:4, 5) He knows your pain and the many tears that you cry. (Acts 24:15) You're in my prayers.

“ Even though I was older than you, it never mattered. We, along with many others will always be the "Country Club Rd. Gang". We played together...hide n' seek, tag, jump rope, hopscotch, we did it all. There are no greater memories than of all of us growing up on Country Club Rd. You will be missed. I am so glad I had the chance to reconnect with you & the others. God Bless you & RIP, Debbie.

Deb, I'll miss your smiling face and humorous FB posts. Even though we hadn't seen each other in awhile, when we spoke it was like there hadn't been a lapse in time. You are now with the angels, and your grand-daughter will now have you as her special Guardian Angel. May God keep your husband and children in his loving arms, and give them peace during this sorrowful time.
