“ I will always remember the time you, me, Walt & Frankie put mops on our heads and sang *I Want to Hold Your Hand* pretending to be the Beatles & singing to our family. And the time we got our first mini skirts together. They were blue & white with flowers & boy were they SHORT!! How all us cousins would watch the Wizard of Oz at Nana & PopPops because they had the only colored TV, & because there were so many cousins we would share half a kaiser roll with peanut butter & jelly. Then there was the year all of us got cowboy & cowgirl outfits!! YEE HAA!! Then we grow up and sadly each of us grow apart and all we have are the fond memories of days gone by. I will miss you but now you are with Aunt Mill & Nana & PopPop and all the loved ones that have passed before you. GOD Speed until we meet again and sing the Beatles together again!

“ Please accept my most heartfelt condolences. Debra was a high school classmate and we had all reconnected to many of our classmates through doing a page for our graduating class and through having informal reunions that we all attended together. We also had breakfast with some of the ladies from fb. Se will be missed. Such a shock and I pray that you all find the strength to get through this. She had just mentioned recently the death of her husband and how she missed him. Now they are together. May she RIP eternally now. Patricia (Biagi) Mascola. I just lost my husband 6 months ago so I understand your grief and shock. God Bless you all.
