“ I remember when the Punky Brewsters was started, I was recovering from a motor vehicle accident and couldn't walk well. I used to go to watch them and sit at the bar while many others were out on the dance floor. On a few different occasions Derek would wait until Dave started singing and then come down off the stage. He would then get me out of my seat and hold onto me (or let me hold onto him) so that I could dance. He'd make sure no one got too rough around me (for the most part :)) and he'd lead me back to my seat after a few minutes. It was a small act of kindness but meant a lot to me.

He was so full of life and we all had a lot of fun back then. I am so sorry for this loss and I'm praying for you all.
