

Diana Catts

October 30, 2020

Diana Catts, born February 4, 1965 was granted her angel wings on October 30, 2020. Some of you knew Diana for being out in Wildwood, NJ with her partner in crime & husband, Bill, drinking Golden Monkeys; some knew her as Shannon's "cool Mom"; others were lifelong friends from childhood; and some even referred to her as a second Mom. It is incredible how much Diana has touched the lives of those around her, always with her "good vibes" mentality. Diana was her family's rock, the backbone, the glue, a sassy Italian, the most amazing wife, and truly the world's greatest Mom. Everyone saw her as their favorite person and the one who could make any situation better, as her beauty radiated both inside and out.

Diana is survived by her husband, William Catts; daughter, Shannon Catts; and son in law, Joey Harbaugh.

Diana was my best friend since we met in high school. She was like a sister to me. She was the Godmother of my son Michael. I have 40 years of memories. We spent hours talking on the phone about everything and sometimes talking about nothing at all. She was the first person I called when anything happened in my life whether it was good or bad. She was always there for me. She made me belly laugh every day with her hilarious stories. I will never stop missing her. I love you forever Diana!!
Love, M
