

Donald S. Morgan

November 24, 2008

Donald S. Morgan, 87, of Elmer passed away on November 24, 2008. Born in Spencer, Iowa, Mr. Morgan was the son of Donald S. & Ella Morgan. Along with his wife Edith, Don moved to Elmer in 1979.

After moving to Elmer, Mr. Morgan became very active in the community. Over the years he served on the Elmer Boro Council, the Planning Board and for many years he served as the President of the Elmer Library Association. Along with the other board members, Don spent many hours advocating for and raising money for the library. Don's hard work and dedication has given the entire community a library that we can all be proud of.

Mr. Morgan graduated from Iowa State University, served in the U.S. Army and retired from Shell Chemical after thirty years of service as a chemist. Don had many interests and hobbies, one of which was bird watching. Every year he would participate in the Audubon Society New Year's Day bird count.

Mr. Morgan will truly be missed by his family, friends and the community as a whole. Don is survived by three children, John and his wife Jackie of Franklin Township, Donald Jr., and his wife Nancy of Eagan, MN and Emily Sisson and her husband Paul of Seattle as well as five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. His wife Edith predeceased him in 2004.

A Celebration of his life will be held on Thursday, December 4, 2008 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ. The family will begin to greet friends and neighbors at 6:30pm with a time for reflection starting at 7:30pm. The family has suggested that donations can be made to either the Elmer Library Association, P.O. Box 372, Elmer, NJ 08318 or the American Cancer Society, 1854 Old Cuthbert Rd., Cherry Hill NJ.
