

Donna Maccarone

May 22, 2022

Donna Joan Maccarone, age 79, of Dover, DE passed away on May 22, 2022. Donna is survived by her sons Joseph Reis, Kevin Moore, Marc Moore and his wife Jeryl, and Eric Moore; her grandchildren Brandon Moore, Sara Reis, Taylor Harvey and her husband Joe, and Sydney Moore; her sister Edith Alton; and three nieces. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Salvatore "Sam" Maccarone, Jr. and a niece.

Born in Salem and raised in Pedricktown, she was the daughter of the late Harry J. Kragler and Agnes (ImFeld) Kragler Milligan. Over the years, Donna resided in Swedesboro, Woodstown and Pilesgrove, NJ before moving to Dover, DE. In her early years, she worked as a secretary for the Oldmans Township School District and later as a clerical worker for the Department of Corrections and Parole in Dover. Donna will be remembered as a very generous woman who was like a mother to everyone. She was a great cook, was extremely outgoing and could make friends easily.

Services will be held at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098. There will be a visitation on Thursday night, May 26, 2022 from 6 to 8 PM and again on Friday morning, May 27, 2022 from 10 to 11 AM. The funeral service will follow the Friday visitation at 11 AM. Interment will be at Lawnside Cemetery in Pilesgrove, NJ.

“ I went to High School with Donna. She was a very sweet and friendly girl. Later we were friends for several years when we both had children and they were little. I lost track of her after that but always wondered what happened to her and where she was. I would have loved reconnecting with her in our late years. I am so very sorry for your loss. Rest In Peace Donna
