“ I'll never forget the first time I met you in gym class at WHS and from there on we became such good friends working at Colossal Cold Cuts. I was always at the house with you, John and Theresa. So many good times in that house. Shortly after you had Jennifer and it wasn't too long after I got married and moved to Florida. I came home and went to your house in Elmer and it was vacant. From then on I've been looking for you and unfortunately I saw you had passed. My heart dropped. How I wish I had found you sooner. I love you my friend and I will forever cherish the wonderful memories you have left in my heart. Rest easy.
