

Douglas Cooper

February 3, 2025

Douglas Cooper, 68, of Elmer, passed away on February 3, 2025. Born in Woodbury, Doug was the son of Fred and Doris Zane Cooper. He is survived by his children, Susan Steier and her husband Kenneth, and Zane Cooper and his wife Lindsay; his grandchildren, Kennady, Layla, and Miles; and his siblings, Doris Cheeseman and Patricia Gruber. In addition to his parents, Doug was predeceased by his siblings Butch and Walter Cooper, and Judy Swanson.

A man of great faith, Doug dedicated his life to helping others, most notably as a youth pastor. His passion for guiding young people to know the love of Jesus was at the heart of everything he did. He often said, “God is so good to me,” and lived his life as a true reflection of that belief, always striving to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

In addition to his ministry, Doug had many other passions. He loved going to the beach, enjoying ice cream—especially Cream Valley’s caramel sundae with vanilla custard—and indulging in ice-cold Coca-Cola, preferably in a glass. Doug also had an impressive talent for refinishing furniture and selling antiques, along with a deep love for flowers and landscape design, finding joy in cultivating beauty in both his surroundings and in the lives of others. He could seemingly fix anything, much like MacGyver, with random things.

Above all, Doug deeply loved his family. He was incredibly proud of his children and cherished every moment spent with his grandchildren, Layla, Kennady, and Miles. His love for them was immeasurable, and he created lasting memories that will be treasured by them forever.

Doug will be missed beyond words. His kindness, generosity, and unwavering faith touched the lives of many, and his absence leaves a void that can never be filled.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 22, 2025, at the Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098. The Memorial Visitation will begin at 10 AM, with the service following at 11 AM. Burial is private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers the family has asked that donations be sent to waterstep at waterstep.org in Doug's memory. For more details, please visit www.adamsfuneralhome.org.

“ Uncle Doug (Old Weezer) gave me many fun memories. Growing up with him as an uncle made life fun. He called me Weezer, and even as an adult we had many joyous memories. I'm glad my kids got to know him. I know there was great rejoicing in heaven when he left this world. Our real home us with our precious Lord and Savior. Til we are reunited in glory I'll remember the good times we had .Love you.

Doug was a big part of our church, Tuckahoe United Methodist Church. He was known for his paper flowers when someone was ill and planting stakes with the paper flowers with handwritten messages on them from the congregation. He was a big part of our church.
