

Douglas Van Lore

March 13, 2013

With heavy hearts but soulful spirits, Douglas Van Lore, 48, of Alloway passed away in the presence of his family and friends. Born in Camden, Doug was the son of Wilbert & Juanita (Nelson) Lore. He graduated from Woodstown High School in 1984 and then attended Salem Community College. With the desire to start his own business, he created Lore Transportation, LLC that he operated for the next twenty-three years. In addition to his family and friends, whom he would do anything for; he cared very much for the community he lived in and the people in it. Because of this he made a conscious decision to get involved. He did this by serving on the Alloway Township School Board, the Zoning Board as well as the Planning Board. He was also a member of the Alloway Republican Club serving as its president for a period of time. Doug also served on the Township Committee that also included a stint as Deputy Mayor. Furthermore, he was a member of Reliance Fire Company and was a lifetime member of the FFA, holding a State Office and as Treasurer.

His wife Brenda (Mosley), his children, CPL. Dale Lore of NC, Presley Durham and his wife Erica of Alloway, Ellen Durham of Alloway and Shelby Lore of Alloway, his grandson, Raylan Durham, mother, Juanita Lore and his brother Glenn Lore both of Pilesgrove survive him. His father Wilbert predeceased him.

Services will be held on Monday, March 18, 2013 at the Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ 08098. The viewing will begin at 3 PM with the service following at 6 PM. Interment is private. The family has suggested that donations can be made to the The ALS Association Greater Philadelphia Chapter?321 Norristown Road - Suite 260, Ambler, PA 19002?215-643-5434. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ One of our earliest memories of Doug was when he was just a young teenager. He had more charm and charisma at that young age than most of the adults I have known. He was a hard worker, a straight shooter, a wonderful husband, father, son, brother, and friend to many. Larry and I were privileged to know him and our hearts are broken that he is gone way too soon. Sometimes Life truly isn't fair.

“ Don't cry for me

*When I'm gone; don't cry for me
I am not dead; I'm in sweet eternity
I'll live forever; I'll wait for all of you
When it's your time; it's what God would have us do.*

*He called my name; He said come home
I did not die' please do not cry; I will no more roam
I'll be by our Savior forever; soon, you too
We'll walk in the light; praising God in all that we do.*

*do not mourn for ; I have sweet victory
I'll walk in God's garden; and glories see
I am not dead; He set me free; an Angel called to me
It's beautiful her; Heavens' full of cheer; you'll see*

*I did not die my love; I only went ahead
I knew you'd understand; though I know this, you' dread
That will pass too; do all God would have you do Maybe up there God will let me have; a glimpse of you.*

*I did not die, so do not cry; I'll meet you here one day
Jesus will send an Angel to bring you to me; all the way
Our love is sure; our hearts are strong
I did not die, so please don't cry; I am home. Pearlie Duncan Walker*

*I can still see your face when you would know something and you were dieing to keep it too yourself. You would turn all red and laughing so hard. You were the best friend anyone could have , You never minded to take me out on the dance floor. I knew you were the best friend to Billy, and you made him feel so good .
Thank you friend until we meet again. LINDA AND WILLIAM MILLS.*

To my friend I wish you well, cause now you have peace at last. I and Billy will always remember how you made us laugh, and how you never complained on taking me on the dance floor, that meant alot to me. You made Billy special and I can still see your face when you knew something and was busting insider not to let it out. You my friend have a special part in my heart.
