

Eda "June" Stewart

March 26, 2015

Eda Lillian "June" Baker Stewart, age 84, of Pittsgrove, NJ, passed away on Thursday, March 26, 2015. She was born in Princeton, spent time as a child in Lawrence, Long Island, NY and graduated from Hannah More Academy, Maryland in 1948.

She married the late John A. Stewart, Jr. and lived in Princeton and Hopewell, NJ. Her love of flowers led her to work for various florists before opening her own business, The Hopewell Country Florist for 10 years.

Upon retiring in 1989, she lived with various family members before settling in Pittsgrove, NJ. During this time she became an avid quilter belonging to multiple guilds and groups. She especially loved her charity quilting.

She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Past President & Member of Hopewell Garden Club, Order of the Eastern Star, Hopewell Business Association and Hopewell Presbyterian Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Harland Felch and Alice Dunstan Baker. She is survived by two sisters, Louise Pascal of Maryland and Marian Rogers of Virginia, as well as 6 children, 12 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

The memorial service will be held on Wednesday, April 29, 2015 at 11 AM at Hopewell Presbyterian Church, 80 W. Broad St., Hopewell, NJ 08525.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her name to the Smile Train, PO Box 96231, Washington, DC 20090-6231 or go to www.smiletrain.org; or Heartland Hospice, 190 N. Evergreen Ave., Woodbury, NJ 08096. www.adam
