

Edward S. Sanderlin III

July 24, 2023

Edward S Sanderlin III, 82, of Penns Grove, NJ, went to be with our Lord on July 24, 2023 surrounded by family. Edward, fondly known as Ed, was born to Edward and Louisa Sanderlin on August 23, 1940 in Salem, NJ.

Edward has always had a strong love for his country which led him to enlisting in the US Army. After returning from the Army he joined The American Legion of Penns Grove, NJ. During his time in the American Legion Ed held many ranks, his greatest joy was volunteering to place flags on the graves of our fallen soldiers for over forty years.

Ed met the love of his life Rose Simpkins at Fast Eddies in Penns Grove, NJ. They were married July 23, 1988. Ed and Rose were inseparable. Ed had a passion for cooking. He and Rose spent countless hours making homemade meatballs and pizzelles. Everyone was excited to receive their treats. Ed would often give them to complete strangers. Ed was a dedicated family man who spent a lot of his time gardening and playing board games with his grandchildren. Ed loved to relax watching a good western movie or playing solitaire.

Ed worked for Heinz Company until the late 1970s. This led him to pursue a career in transportation for Armallini trucking, followed by Hills Produce and LaRosa Greenhouses. This allowed Ed to spend over forty-five years seeing the East Coast.

Ed became a self-taught mechanic where he worked for Pennsville Tire, Wisneski Bus Service and Pennsgrove Pontiac. Ed never knew a stranger, he was an honest respectful man. His outgoing personality and zest for life allowed him to make many friends along the way.

Ed genuinely valued his friends and could often be seen at Woodstown McDonalds or The Salem Oak Diner for weekly breakfast gatherings until the very end.

Ed is survived by his sister Dorothy Elizabeth Jones; daughter Vicki Harvey and spouse Boyd Harvey; son William Sanderlin; son-in-law Kevin Bryant; grandchildren Edward S Sanderlin V, Emily Sanderlin, Jessica Puglisi, Heather Aguilar and spouse Lizbeth Aguilar as well as six great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Ed was predeceased by his loving wife Rose Sanderlin, sisters, Louise Mae McDowell and Ida Carver, children, Edward Sanderlin IV, Joy Simpkins, and Fredrick Simpkins as well as his grandson, William H Wood III.

ED will be greatly missed by all.
