“ Halloween night a knock came on our back door. Your folks were the first (and probably only) Trick or Treaters that ever made it back our lane to our house. Quite a surprise! My Father hadn't made donuts that night, but he did have cookies.
Mr. Coles was our bus driver too and often had those beautiful little Coles kids with him. Fond memories of growing up in the country in "Sharptown Heights" at the end of County House.
A good man! Our sympathy to all your family.
