“ So very, very sad to hear of the passing of a 1960 classmate and wonderful friend. I recall Ed and I were the first guys to sign up for typing class. Ms. Seletra talked us into it. It was her attempt to get other guys to take until than an all girls class. We certainly struggled with remembering those keys but had a lot of laughs. She would always give us positive feed-back to keep us from dropping the course. Funny to recall such a subject after all these years and experiences. I guess its one of those moments to remember. A wonderful person.

My prayers are with Ed and his family.
