

Elouise DeAngelis

August 10, 2024

Elouise DeAngelis, 97, having lived in Pitman Manor for the past nine years, passed away on August 10, 2024. Prior to moving there, she and her late husband Bernard had lived in Mickleton for many years. Born in Camden, Elouise was the daughter of Clark & Hazel (Search) Hiserote. She graduated from Bridgeton High School and then started working for Bell Telephone retiring after forty-years as a supervisor. When it came to her faith, Elouise was very strong in nurturing, growing and sharing it. Much of this nurturing and strengthening of her faith came from being very involved in all the churches she attended. As with the churches, she was also very involved with the activities and functions that went on in the Manor. She also enjoyed crocheting, especially making baby quilts and she also taught English as a second language.

She is survived by her siblings, Elsie Pennington (Leigh), Delores Rogan (Charlie), Charlotte McHugh (Keith), Virginia Cassaday (Paul) and Clark Hiserote (Darlene); nieces and nephews, Carol Decker, Larry Reeves, Susan Baker (Harley), Sandy Baran (Bob) and Lewis Hiserote (Margie), her sister-in-law, Ida Hiserote as well as several cousins, great nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband Bernard and two siblings Hazel Reeves and Lewis Hiserote.

Today in looking at my calendar I realized it would have been my dear Friends Birthday...98 today❤️. I miss our talks and visits since I moved to Florida. Ellie was a 2nd Mom we would always say. I met her when I came to work at NJ BELL. I was 16 and Ellie took me under her wing immediately...I have such wonderful memories of her and they will sustain me ❤️🥹rest in peace Ellie.
